Discover the enchanting Palm Estate at Brown's Bay, a private 3-acre luxury villa that offers the perfect sanctuary to escape the hustle and bustle of everyday life and bask in the beauty of Antigua. Nestled along the bayfront, this exquisite property boasts tranquility and seclusion, surrounded by meticulously landscaped gardens that create a soothing ambiance.

The Palm Estate is comprised of three distinct Caribbean-style living quarters, each providing a private and secluded haven. Connected by a network of natural stone paved walkways, these living quarters offer a sense of serenity and harmony with nature.

With its capacity to comfortably accommodate up to eight guests, this villa is an ideal retreat for families or groups of friends.
