Rarely does a waterfront property of this caliber become available on Antigua's stunning north coast. Nestled within the sought-after residential area of Crosbies, La Maison Du Nord offers a unique chance to own a prime piece of real estate in Antigua and Barbuda. Situated on a 0.3-acre parcel of land, this exceptional property combines the charm of a mature family home with the potential for further development, all within steps of the turquoise waters of the Caribbean Sea.

Constructed in the 1990s, La Maison Du Nord features a four-bedroom, two-bathroom main house, complemented by two charming guest cottages.
