

🏠 2 🛏 2

Nestled on a hillside on the South coast of Antigua in Falmouth Harbour, you will find the luxurious and historical St. Anne's Point property. St. Anne's Point Guest House offers fabulous views across Falmouth Harbour and out to the ocean. The property has a spacious terrace and deck area, where you can enjoy the breeze and scenic surrounding views plus experience the best of the indoor/outdoor living style of the Caribbean. Falmouth Harbour is internationally renowned as the yachting capital of the Caribbean and home to some of the most impressive, world-class mega-yachts and sailing vessels worldwide. You are minutes away from the spectacular white sandy Pigeon Beach as well as in walking distance of some of the Island's most popular bars and restaurants along with the historical Nelson's Dockyard. St. Anne's Point Guest House may be booked with St. Anne's Point Great House allowing accommodation for 10 people in 5 bedrooms.

