

Antigua Villa SV12 is a charming beachfront studio apartment available for holiday rental in Antigua and Barbuda. Set within the Antigua Village Beach Resort, this beautifully furnished apartment provides direct access to the awe-inspiring Dickenson Bay, one of the most breathtaking beaches on the island.

The resort itself offers the perfect blend of comfort, character, and culture. Surrounded by lush gardens, each villa and apartment provides a tranquil setting that leads straight to the gorgeous waterfront, inviting you to indulge in the sun, sand, and surf.

This particular studio apartment has undergone a complete renovation and stands out as a unique gem within the resort. It boasts a fully equipped kitchen, allowing guests the convenience of preparing their own meals. The apartment offers spacious living, dining, and sleeping areas, suitable for both couples and singles seeking a comfortable and relaxing getaway.

Within close proximity to Antigua Village, guests will find an array of amazing restaurants, including Ana's on the Beach and Salt Plage. For those interested in watersports, there are options available nearby. Additionally, the main road offers convenient access to the local bus system, making it easy to explore the island's attractions.

Antigua Villa SV12 is conveniently located only 15 minutes from the capital, St. John's, and a mere 30 minutes from the V.C Bird Airport, ensuring easy access to and from your vacation destination.

With its fully equipped kitchen, king-sized bed, spacious living area, and full bathroom, Antigua Villa SV12 provides the perfect beachfront retreat for a memorable vacation experience in Antigua and Barbuda.

